Tripoly, October 13.

WE have enjoyed the utmoſt Tranquility ſince the Attempt of the Albanians to become Maſters of this Town in Auguſt laſt. And we have ſince received Advice, that about Two Hundred of thoſe Albanians, who eſcaped from hence in an Engliſh Veſſel after that Attempt, had, with great Difficulty, gained the Coaſt of the Morea, where they diſpoſed of the ſaid Veſſel; and that about thirty of them, going afterwards from thence in a Bark to the Iſland of Candia, were ſecured, ſoon after their Arrival, and put in Irons. We are aſſured, that Ali Effendi, who went ſome Time ago to execute a Commiſſion from the Recency of this Place to the Court of France, and who arrived here from thence a few Days ago in a Ship of 25 Guns, will ſet out ſhortly for Conſtantinople, in order to lay ſome important Affairs before the Porte. We have at preſent no Ships at Sea but our Admiral, who ſailed Yeſterday on a Cruize againſt the Ships of the Chriſtian Powers.

Lisbon, Oct. 23. The Court is ſtill at Bellem, from whence their Majeſties are expected here towards the Beginning of next Month. The Duke de Soto-Mayor, the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, ſtrongly ſollicits this Court to renew its Orders to the Governor of the Brazils, to cauſe the Iſland of St. Sacrament, which was ceded to the Crown of Spain by a late Treaty between the two Courts, to be effectually evacuated, as the Portugueſe, who are at preſent ſettled there, ſeem not at all inclined to give it up.

Naples, Oct. 31. On Wedneſday laſt, being the Anniverſary of the Birth of the Queen Dowager of Spain, the King's Mother, there was a very ſplendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility and Gentry, to compliment their Majeſties on that Occaſion. Laſt Wedneſday a great Number of Convicts, confined in the different Priſons of this City, received their Sentence, two of whom are ordered to ſuffer Death, and the reſt to be ſent to work in the Gallies for Life. Prince Eſterhaſi, Ambaſſador from their Imperial Majeſties to this Court, ſets out from hence on Thurſday next for Vienna; from whence the Marqueſs Doria, who comes to ſucceed him, is ſhortly expected.

Rome, Nov. 4. On Wedneſday laſt, being the Feaſt of All Saints, the Pope heard a ſolemn Maſs ſung to Muſick on that Occaſion by Cardinal Tamburini, aſſiſted by ſeveral Members of the Sacred College. Notwithſtanding there is now 15 Vacancies in the Sacred College, by the Death of Cardinal Riviera, the Pope does not as yet ſeem inclined to make any new Promotion. Yeſterday 70 Convicts were ſent from hence to Civitta Vecchia, to work as Slaves in the Gallies.

Genoa, Nov. 7. The King of Sardinia having lately purchaſed a fine new Galley built in this Port, has ſent one of his own Gallies, accompanied by a Bark, and two Tartanes, in order to fit her for Sea, and to conduct her to Villafranca. M. Cortada, heretofore Auditor de Rota for the Kingdom of Spain, who arrived here the 21ſt of laſt Month from Rome, ſet out from hence Yeſterday, in order to take Poſſeſſion of the Biſhoprick of Zamora, to which he was lately promoted by his Catholick Majeſty. The Maſter of a Ship, who arrived here a few Days ago from Minorca, ſays, that he ſaw ſeveral Neapolitan Chebecks cruizing off Meſſina, againſt the Corſairs of Barbary.

Leghorn, Nov. 8. The Regency having received Advice, that the Plague at Algiers is entirely ceaſed, Orders are daily expected to be iſſued, either for reducing the Quarantine which all Ships coming from thence are at preſent obliged to perform, or elſe to take it quite off. We are informed by our laſt Letters from Corſica, that moſt of the Inhabitants of that Iſland have refuſed to accept the new Regulation offered by the Marqueſs de Curſay; and 'tis even ſaid, that the Heads of the Pieves have ſolemnly declared, in an Aſſembly held for that Purpoſe, that they will ſooner riſk their whole Fortunes than ſubmit to it.

Vienna, Nov. 11. On Monday next the States of Lower Auſtria will open their Aſſembly in this City, when Count Konigſegg Erps will lay before them the Propoſitions of her Imperial Majeſty, upon which they are to deliberate. Count Chriſtiani, who arrived here a few Days ago from Lombardy, has already been admitted to an Audience of their Imperial Majeſties, and has laid before them an Account of the preſent State of Affairs in that Part of Italy.

Warſaw,

[Price Two-Pence.]

Warſaw, Nov. 11. We learn from the Frontiers of the Ukraine, that a Detachment of Troops from the Crown Army having lately come up with another large Party of Heyducks, had fallen upon them, and cut them to Pieces; and that the Defeats thoſe Heyducks have lately ſuſtained, have ſo intimidated and weakened them, that they have entirely quitted the Poliſh Territories.

Ratisbon, Nov. 15. Count Seilern, whom the Empreſs Queen of Hungary has appointed Ambaſſador from Bohemia to the General Diet of the Empire, in the Room of Count Franckenberg, arrived here on Sunday Night laſt from Vienna. The Barons de Greiffenheim and Rantzau, Miniſters from the Courts of Sweden and Denmark to the ſaid Diet, have delivered their Credential Letters, and are both acknowledged in their reſpective Qualities.

Copenhagen, Nov. 15. On the 10th Inſtant we had as violent a Storm of Wind as has been remembered for ſome Years, by which ſeveral Merchantmen in this Port were drove from their Anchors, and received conſiderable Damage; and by the Pieces of Wrecks which are ſince come on Shore, we are afraid this Hurricane has made great Havock amongſt the Ships along our Coaſt.

Hague, Nov. 23. By our laſt Letters from Germany we have Advice, that the Elector of Bavaria, accompanied by ſeveral of the principal Lords of his Court, was gone from Munich for Bonn, in order to pay a Viſit to his Uncle the Elector of Cologn. We have received an Account from the Brill, that M. Maclean, Lieutenant Colonel of the Scotch Regiment of Majorisbanks, died lately there, in the 64th Year of his Age.
